

Emeryville, the strongest online
business community in California?

Go ahead...Google it.

“The City of Emeryville is located on the east shore of the San Francisco Bay. The city has a thriving business community that houses companies ranging from small retail stores to large technology firms, including many studio spaces for artists and animators,” notes the 2014 Google’s eCity Awards recognition of the City of Emeryville.

“Emeryville serves as a prime example of how innovation and growth in e-commerce can successfully contribute to bolstering economic progress and competitiveness. Google is proud to recognize Emeryville’s accomplishment, and the role the Internet plays in creating Californian jobs,” says Google representative Emma Ogiemwanye.

We thank Google for their recognition and support. We also invite you to consider the benefits of connecting with us in Emeryville.
