

MANY WAYS FOR ANY COMPANY TO TAKE ACTION.

Wareham Development is privileged to support these non-profit efforts, who serve East Shore students and others around the Bay Area. They all seek mentors and volunteers to work with students in their in-school and after-school STEM and STEAM programs. We invite you to learn more about these great organizations, and to consider them in your year-end giving plans and as part of your employee engagement strategies.

Scientific Adventures for Girls (SAfG). SAfG envisions a gender-equitable society, where all girls know their full potential, know they are capable of great things and are equipped with 21st century skills. Help SAfG by volunteering, mentoring, or donating. www.scientificadventures.org

Community Resources for Science. CRS connects and engages educators, students, and scientists in a vibrant and innovative network of science learning resources, transforming science education. www.crscience.org

Berkeley Community Scholars. Bridging the opportunity divide for Berkeley youth from lower income families by providing scholarships, connections, and other support instrumental to success in college and beyond. www.berkeleyscholars.org

Girls Garage. A nonprofit design and building program and dedicated workspace for girls ages 9-18. Through classes in carpentry, welding, architecture, and activist art, they support and equip a community of fearless girls who are building the world they want to see. www.girlsgarage.org

Berkeley Public Schools Funds. Join a community of almost 1,000 volunteers who bring needed support, expertise, and resources to the students, staff, and schools of Berkeley Unified – every day of every year. www.berkeleypublicschoolsfund.org

Planting Justice. Since 2009, Planting Justice has built over 450 edible permaculture gardens in the San Francisco Bay Area, worked with five high-schools to develop food justice curricula and created 40 green jobs in the food justice movement for folks transitioning from prison. www.plantingjustice.org

Kala Art Institute. As a community-oriented organization, Kala Art Institute provides quality art education for local children, youth and adults in schools, summer camps and workshops for youth and families. www.kala.org

CSU EB Institute for STEM Education. Design and implementation of programs that improve teacher proficiency in STEM education for the benefit of all students, at all grade levels. www.instituteforstemed.com

Coaching Corps. Recruiting, training, and supporting energetic community members to use sport to teach kids living in low-income communities valuable life lessons and inspire them to reach their full potential. www.coachingcorps.org

California Film Institute. Besides producing the annual Mill Valley and DOCLANDS Documentary Film Festivals, CFI celebrates film as art and education by building the next generation of filmmakers and film lovers through CFI Education programs. www.cafilm.org

Berkeley FILM Foundation. Founded by Wareham Development, the City of Berkeley and the Saul Zaentz Company with a mission to nurture, sustain and preserve the thriving local independent film community while attracting the next generation of filmmakers. www.berkeleyfilmfoundation.org

Urban Adamah. An educational farm and community center integrating the practices of Jewish tradition, sustainable agriculture, mindfulness and social action to build loving, just and sustainable communities through educational programs and community celebrations. www.urbanadamah.org

Zero Breast Cancer. Bilingual program teaching girls, pre-teens and teens how to make healthy choices to reduce their risk of breast cancer at key stages of life. www.zerobreastcancer.org

YMCA of the East Bay. Their Early Childhood Learning Centers as well as the effort they are undertaking to provide families with groceries, essential items, and personal protective equipment (PPE) are vital programs. www.ymcaeastbay.org

